SECURITY ABOUT THE FIND

INDICTMENTS RETURNED MAY BE INVALIDATED.

San Francisco, Dec. 27.—Three preliminary hearings of David Walker, president of the California Safe Deposit & Trust company, a two weeks' extension was ordered by Judge Dunn this morning. Assistant District Attorney William H. Cook and W. H. Chickering, Walker's attorney, agreed to the extension.

San Francisco, Dec. 27.—The announcement that the missing securities of the Colton estate had been found tucked away in an old corner of the California Safe Deposit & Trust company, which caused a stir among the officials of the district attorney's office, which is directing the prosecution of Bankers Brown and Barnett, who are accused of the embezzlement of the certificates. Investigation showed that only a few stocks and certificates had been unearthed by Receiver Cushing. They were most of the shares of mining companies whose value is problematical. Cushing said that they did not appear to be negotiable. It is said that the finding of the stocks will have no effect on the prosecution of Brown and Barnett, as they have not been accused of the embezzlement of the stocks unearthed today. The missing bonds valued at $295,000 have not yet been located.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 27.—Stocks and bonds which are part of the missing Colton securities, have been found. They never left the state of California; they never were out of the custody of the California Safe Deposit & Trust company, and in fact were found in the vaults of the depository yesterday. It was on account of these missing securities that J. D. Dugan, Brown and Attorney Walter Barnett were indicted.

So that a hunt which encircled the world, involving the principal banks of London and New York City, and some of the largest interests in the world, has returned to its starting point, namely, the vaults of the California Safe Deposit & Trust company.

Bonds Identified.

Yesterday Custodian Cushing sent out a hurry call for Barclay Henley, the attorney who represents the contestants of the estate of Mrs. Ellen Colton, and Assistant District Attorney Hoffman Cook. Henley went to the bank yesterday and was shown a list of bonds and stocks which were found in the bank. Attorney Henley identified the bonds as part of the missing securities. Cook arrived at the bank this morning and examined the documents, which were shown to him. He, too, recognized them as part of the Colton property. Cook imposed secrecy upon the bank, as it is believed part of the papers may invalidate all the indictments which have thus far been returned.

Charge in Indictment.

The indictments charge the bankers with having embezzled the Colton securities, among them being those found yesterday, and with having taken them out of the state, contrary to the laws of the state. If these men are charged

FATAL SHOOTING RESULT OF ROW

Joe Tiesant Receives Bullet
Through Eye at Bingham
Canyon.

FUSILLADE IN DARKNESS

ATTACK ON WOMAN HAS BLOODY OUTCOME.

(Special to The Herald.)
Bingham, Dec. 27.—Three Austrians were shot at the Highland Boy just after dark tonight. Joe Tiesant was shot through the right eye, the bullet coming out just behind the right ear. His injury is the most serious and will undoubtedly prove fatal.

Mike Bogdanovich was shot through the left shoulder and side, the bullet coming out above the nipple.

Jim Anovitch was hit in the right hip, the bullet passing through the fleshy part of the hip and grazing the skin across the small of the back. He is not seriously injured.

Trouble Results From Christmas.

The trouble started last night. The Roach shot at more liquid refreshments. Some question of the return of the $50 bond arose and Dugavitch declared his intention of whipping Bogdanovich. Deputy Fred Doane was called to the Highland Boy by Bogdanovich and accompanied him to the home of Dugavitch, where they were met by twenty-five Austrians armed with axes, knives and revolvers. The trouble was fired but no account of the darkness it was impossible to tell who did the shooting. Doane went for assistance and Chief Raleigh, Patrolman Van Selver and Deputy Forbes answered the call, but by the time of their arrival the trouble was over and all the trouble was apparently over.

Dr. Oxford dressed the wounds of the injured men. No arrests have yet been made. Strict vigilance is being kept by Chief Raleigh and the deputy sheriffs, as it is feared the trouble will break out again.

Liquor Is Consumed.

After Dugavitch was released the crowd gathered to the saloon of George Pyranovich to take on more liquid refreshments. Some question of the return of the $50 bond arose and Dugavitch declared his intention of whipping Bogdanovich. Deputy Fred Doane was called to the Highland Boy by Bogdanovich and accompanied him to the home of Dugavitch, where they were met by twenty-five Austrians armed with axes, knives and revolvers. The trouble was fired but no account of the darkness it was impossible to tell who did the shooting. Doane went for assistance and Chief Raleigh, Patrolman Van Selver and Deputy Forbes answered the call, but by the time of their arrival the trouble was over and all the trouble was apparently over.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days.

PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, blind, bleeding or protruding piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

With sending the securities out of the state, and they are afterward found in the bank, it is contended by attorneys it will invalidate all the indictments.

It could not be learned this morning just which of the securities have been found, but it is known they are valued at several thousand dollars. Custodian Cushing refused to discuss the matter, referring all questioners to the district attorney, who he said had been told that some of the papers had been found. "I cannot tell you anything about the papers we found," said Cushing, this afternoon. "I must refer you to the district attorney for information."

Former Utah Man Caught Robbing Room

(Special to The Herald.)
Los Angeles, Dec. 27.—After a struggle, William Kinsley of Salt Lake, formerly employed at the Salt Lake Sanitarium in the Turkish bath department, was arrested while robbing bathers at Bimini baths. He had $15 and several articles of jewelry which, it is alleged, he had stolen from dressing rooms. Kinsley had entered two dressing rooms and was in the third one when discovered. He fought desperately, but was overpowered. Since Kinsley has been here he has been out of work and had no money.

BOGUS OFFICER BEATS AND ROBS

"Doc" Gibson Alleged to Have Impersonated Sheriff's Deputy in Carrying on Work.

PERSISTENT IN PURSUIT

VICTIM FOLLOWED FOR DAYS BY CROOK.

Masquerading as a deputy sheriff, a man calling himself "Doc" Gibson followed Chris Larson, a laborer at the salt works, into a room in the Darlingdon lodge house, at 61 East Second South street, early this morning and went through his pockets under the eyes of the wife of the proprietor of the place.

Gibson was arrested at 2 o'clock this morning. He insisted that he is connected with the sheriff's office and called upon the county jail to have the deputy there ask the police to release him. This being refused, he was locked in a cell at the city prison.

Larson arrived in Salt Lake several days ago with considerable money. He at once commenced drinking and wandered among the saloons in Commercial street. Thursday night, when he returned to his room at the Darlingdon, Gibson followed him up the stairs, but as several other persons were standing about, quickly turned and went away.

In Close Pursuit.

This morning, when Larson again staggered up the steps, very much under the influence of drink, Gibson was, it is alleged, at his heels. The proprietor's wife asked him what he wanted. She says that he replied he was a deputy sheriff and was there on business, hinting that he was searching for Joe Sullivan and Joe Garcia.

In her presence, she claims, he seized Larson. The drunken man resisted and was struck a cruel blow upon the head. The woman declares that the man calling himself Gibson was armed with a pair of brass knuckles. The blow opened a scab upon Larson's forehead, just above the left eye.

Trick Is Bold One.

Gibson is alleged to have then dragged Larson into room 9, where he went through the man's pockets. The woman, who stood and watched this, was so frightened, but dared not interfere, as she believed Gibson's story that he was an officer. She says that so far as she could see Gibson did not find any money in Larson's pockets.

When Gibson went away, she told her husband of what had occurred and he notified the police. Search was at once made for Gibson.

May Be Ex-Convict.

According to the police, Gibson is an ex-convict and a notorious forger. It is alleged that he is the man who swindled Warren Foster, the insurance man, last summer.

He was in the state penitentiary at the time Joe Sullivan, the fugitive murderer of Policeman Ford, was confined there. It is alleged that he met Sullivan on the night of the Albany saloon holdup and the murder of Ford and learned from the convict that a robbery had been planned. As Gibson had professed a desire to lead an honest life, and had been confined there, he was connected with the sheriff's office, he notified Sheriff Emery that this man was a fugitive and that he was detailed to watch Sullivan and his pal, John Owen, the man who was yesterday sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. In some way the pair eluded the watchers. The holdup and the murder followed within a few hours.

Larson Also Known.

Larson is also known to the police. He has, it is said, been arrested for petty offenses. When Policeman Doty found Gibson in a Commercial street saloon the man declared that he was a deputy sheriff and had been detailed by Sheriff Emery to investigate a robbery case. He asserted that he followed Larson and searched the man in obedience to orders from the sheriff.

When taken to police headquarters, he asked permission to call up the county jail. This was granted and he got into communication with the deputy in charge. Assuming a familiar tone, he said: "Say, I've been plinched by a cop for doing what Frank told me to do."

The deputy at the other end did not warm up to the ex-convict and after some further futile efforts to enlist aid from that quarter the man gave up the attempt to escape spending the night in jail.

California Stockholders of Salt
Lake Oil Company Set Up
Claim of Fraud.

DUMPED HOLDINGS AT $2

WOULD HAVE RECEIVED $15 BY HOLDING ON.

Los Angeles, Dec. 27.—One group of former stockholders in the Salt Lake Oil company today began suit against another group to recover $700,000, which they allege they were defrauded out of in the sale of stock. The plaintiffs allege that through false representations the defendants induced them to part with their stock in the company for $2 a share when it was actually worth $15.

The names of the plaintiffs and the respective amounts demanded by them are as follows: Joseph F. Ullman, $130,000; M. Blumenthal, $30,000; Myer Shane, $21,571; Charles A. Stix, $5,200; Alexander Hyman, $26,571; A. M. Stein, $65,000; Morris B. Mayer, $56,000; Isaac Ryder, $21,571; S. M. Becker, $12,142; Albert Heidelberg, $12,000; A. J. Levy, $33,000; Samuel L. Elvas, $13,000; Emanuel Bach, $6,500.

The defendants named in the action are: J. E. Bamberger, John D. Wood, Simon Bamberger, Walter C. Price, Frederick Phillips, J. A. Chansler, W. S. Porter and the Amalgamated Oil company.

Got Out Too Soon.

"The matter you refer me to in your dispatch is in the hands of J. E. Bamberger, who is now in New York," said Simon Bamberger. "The stockholders who were bringing this suit claim to have been defrauded. We were not. We sold our shares at the going figure of $15 when the company's business was closed up. As a matter of fact, I think these men who are bringing this action got out too early and now want to come in again."

J. D. Woods, another defendant, said.

"There is really nothing to the suit. At this hour I cannot recall all the transactions and figures, but the people who are bringing this suit in California did not have the nerve to stay with our proposition here."

Trials of a Year.

"After all, when I look back over this fearful year, the main thing that stands out in the whole sad panorama is the goodness of God's children; and all the falsehoods told and all the wrongs are not enough to obliterate that. When I think of all those poor, misguided prisoners with whom I spent that year of all that they have had to struggle against before the law got them for forgery, for stealing, for shop-lifting or what not, and realize that low as they were supposed to be, not one of them had anything but kindness for me.
